Committed to helping students achieve their full potential

ABD House

A BRIGHTER DAY FOUNDATION

Committed to helping students achieve their full potential

PURPOSE

The purpose of A Better Day Foundation is to provide an opportunity for deserving female students who may not otherwise reach their potential to have a better chance in life.

DESCRIPTION

The Eden Prairie A Better Day Foundation is a community organization which brings qualified, highly motivated minority students from all over the United States to Eden Prairie High School for their freshman through their senior years. ABD will transport, house and feed the students and provide a caring support system as they grow and prosper during their four years here.

SERVING OPPORTUNITIES

ABD needs Student Support Team Members:

- MENTORS—Guide, communicate, support high school aged young ladies Meet 1 - 4 times per month.
- HOST FAMILIES - Share your home usually two Sundays per month. No special activities needed. Just a warm, friendly, safe day away from the ABD house.
- TRANSPORTATION NEEDS - Provide rides to high school activities, doctor appointments, airport, etc.
- DONATE frequent flyer miles.

For further information about the ABD program, please feel free to talk to current and former host families who are Prairie Lutheran Church members. Contact to arrange.

Ministry Team Leader:
