Feed My Starving Children

Feed My Starving Children is dedicated to providing nourishing food to starving children throughout the world and to providing volunteer opportunities for youth and adults. By providing life-sustaining food they give thousands of children an opportunity to live more meaningful lives.

SERVING OPPORTUNITIES

Volunteers work in teams at the FMSC facility in Chanhasen (on Dell Road & Hwy 5) to measure, weigh and pack food ingredients into plastic bags. They then seal and box them for shipping to children all over the world.

- Volunteers needed to go to FMSC and pack food.
- Volunteers needed to coordinate donations.

QUALIFICATIONS

The person best suited for this ministry has a heart for feeding hungry children AND a desire to help our young people find ways to participate in hands on serving.

TIME COMMITMENT

The time commitment for coordinators is 3-5 hours once or twice per year.
