Hospitality Ministry

Hospitality Ministry

The purpose of Hospitality Ministry is to welcome and assist worshippers in finding seats, provide hospitality and direction, to maintain a neat and orderly sanctuary and to serve communion.

QUALIFICATIONS

A warm and welcoming personality with a desire to help others. Someone who is dependable, organized and personable with a heart for meeting and greeting people.

TIME COMMITMENT

Serve one Sunday a month at your preferred service time for about 90 minutes.

SERVING OPPORTUNITIES

There are three serving opportunities on the Hospitality Ministry team:

Welcome Host

Welcome Hosts greet and welcome guests, provide bulletins, and any assistance needed in seating. They also maintain cleanliness as needed and assist in worship duties, such as communion and offering.

Information Desk

Volunteering at the Information Desk involves distributing information and answering questions. This might include giving directions or helping someone sign up for various opportunities and/or events. Organizing the desk and updating information are also helpful tasks.

Team Leader

The team leader organizes a team of volunteers, prays with them and assigns tasks. The leader helps assure all necessary items are in place for worship and troubleshoots concerns.

Orientation and instruction are provided.
